

The Adoptive Families of the Capital Region
is hosting

Adopted Teen Discussion Group

on

Monday, October 22, 2018

Guilderland Public Library

2228 Western Ave, Guilderland

6:30-8:30 pm

All teens who joined their family by adoption are welcomed to attend this informal discussion on how being adopted impacts teens. The goal of the meeting is to provide a supportive environment where teens can talk about their feelings and experiences related to being adopted. October's discussion group will have a guest speaker an adult adopted person to share their experiences with the teens.

This program is for teens ages 13-18 only, no parents.

There is no cost to attend the meeting.

Parents of new teens attendees should call Marie at (518) 281-8884 prior to the first

AFCR is requesting a $2 donation to cover the cost of snacks and drinks for the teens. In order that we have enough snacks and drinks for everyone, AFCR asks that you call or text Marie Dolfi at (518) 281-8884 or email her at mdolfilcsw@gmail.com to register for the meeting.

AFCR is an all volunteer group that has been providing support, education, and social activities for adoptive families and prospective adoptive parents in the Capital Region for over 40 years. To learn more about AFCR visit our website at www.adoptivefamiliesny.org/

AFCR, P.O. Box 603, Glenmont, NY 12077

(518) 763-8019

